

Code of Conduct: for Parents/Guardians

The essence of good ethical conduct and practice is summarised below. All parents/guardians are requested to:

- Encourage your child to learn the rules and participate within them
- Discourage challenging / arguing with coaches, officials and club staff.
- Publicly accept officials' judgments
- Always collect your child promptly at the end of a session
- Never force your child to take part in sport
- Correct and appropriate language should be used at all times,
- Ensure your child is always dressed appropriately for the activity and has plenty to drink
- Keep the club informed if your child is ill or unable to attend sessions
- Endeavour to establish good communications with the club, coaches and officials for the benefit of all
- Set a good example by recognizing good sportsmanship and applauding the good performances of all
- Share any concerns or complaints about any aspect of the club through the approved channels (www.generationgymnastics.org.uk/privacy-policy-information)
- Support your child's involvement and help them to enjoy their sport
- Help your child to recognize good performance, not just results
- Never punish or belittle a child for poor performance or making mistakes
- Contact staff members through official club contact details (club telephone number, email address or club social media sites) Club staff should not be contacted via personal social media sites.
